

Newcastle Vikings Handball Club Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy Season 2021-2022

Newcastle Vikings Handball Club will adopt the guidelines on Safeguarding and Child Protection used by the England Handball Association (EHA). These can be found at the following link:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1aDFapXrwz155W_brxnEoB4RIOQbQjOJY39Sz171YpB4/edit#heading=h.1pxezwc

This policy has been produced by the EHA in close collaboration with the Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU), who work under the umbrella of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC). It describes the specific practices and procedures that will be adhered to, including:

Scope of the Practices and Procedures

Who do the Practices and Procedures Apply to?

Child Protection Statement and Promise

Dealing with Concerns about a Child's Safety or Welfare

Designated Staff with Responsibility for Safeguarding and Protecting Children

Guidance for Events and Technology Use

Guidance for Practice and Behaviour

Dealing with Disclosure of Abuse and Procedure for Reporting Concerns

Reporting and Dealing with Allegations of Abuse

Recruitment and Selection Procedures

Any queries or concerns in the first instance should be directed to Caroline Snell, the designated Welfare Officer for Newcastle Vikings Handball Club. His contact details are:
